

I am opposed to the proposed rule changes on ownership of media outlets. Both the rules themselves and the process of debate on them are a disservice to the republic. We have ample evidence of a decrease in diversity of opinions over the public's airwaves and through the print media. We need not do any more "testing."

Please listen to the people not the companies.

Respectfully Submitted

Jim Baird